Southwest Georgia Regional Library System Presents:

The SWGRL Spotlight

A monthly E-News and Information Publication of the Southwest Georgia Regional Library System

Back to School
Your Library is Here to Help!

Another summer has passed, and it is once again time for teachers, homework, and tests—that’s right, it’s time for SCHOOL! Don’t worry though, the Southwest Georgia Regional Library System has everything you need to help you succeed in school this year. The library has a wide variety of materials to choose from, including Manners in the Lunchroom by Amanda Tourville and Beat Stress!: The Exam Handbook by Anita Naik.

While you’re here, browse for helpful titles in our DVD collection including How to Do Homework Without Throwing Up and Safety Smart Science with Bill Nye the Science Guy: Electricity. Can’t make it to the library during business hours? Reserve materials online by visiting www.swgrl.org. When they are ready, we will call or e-mail you! Your Southwest Georgia Regional Library System is prepared to help you make this your best school year yet!

25 Books All Georgians Should Read

Georgia Center for the Book Releases 2010 List

The Georgia Center for the Book has released its 2010 List of “25 Books All Georgians Should Read”. The list, released once every two years, contains a list of 25 books ranging from poetry to memoirs to even cookbooks. All of the books on this list are written by Georgia authors.

One of the books on the list is Snakeskin Road by James Braziel, which depicts future desperate inhabitants of a grim landscape of the Southeastern United States devastated by catastrophic climatic changes.

Another one of these fantastic books is Heart of a Patriot: How I Survived Vietnam, Walter Reed, and Karl Rowe by Max Cleland. This is Cleland’s third book, and it details his remarkable journey from small-town Georgia to Vietnam to a U.S. Senate seat.

Thanks to the Virginia Lee Rozier Georgia Author Collection through the Decatur County—Gilbert H. Gragg Library Foundation, the titles on this list are available at the Decatur County—Gilbert H. Gragg Library.

Book Clubs
In Miller and Seminole Counties!

Have you heard about the book clubs at the Miller County—James W. Merritt, Jr. Memorial Library and at the Seminole County Public Library? This is your chance to meet new people and discuss interesting books with others.

The First Tuesday Book Club at the Miller County—James W. Merritt, Jr. Memorial Library will not meet in August, but will hold its next meeting on Tuesday, September 7, 2010 at 10 a.m. They will discuss the book Dragon House by John Shors. This novel, set in modern-day Vietnam, tells the tale of two Americans who, as a way of healing their own painful pasts, open a center to house and educate Vietnamese street children.

The First Wednesday Book Club will meet on Wednesday, August 5, 2010 at 10 a.m. at the Seminole County Public Library. They will discuss the book The Last Child by Joan Hart. Don’t miss the following meeting on Wednesday, September 1, 2010 at 10 a.m., as they discuss Harper Lee’s classic novel, To Kill a Mockingbird.

Have You Met?
Cathy Chestnut at the Decatur County—Gilbert H. Gragg Library!

Have you met Cathy Chestnut at the Decatur County—Gilbert H. Gragg Library? Cathy is a Library Assistant who works at the Decatur County—Gilbert H. Gragg Library. She has been employed at the library for nine years. She is a native of Bainbridge and a graduate of Bainbridge High School. She lived in Quincy, Florida for five years with her husband before moving back to Bainbridge. While in Quincy, Cathy attended Vocational Technical school, where she received a certificate as a clerk typist. Cathy really enjoys working at the library; her favorite parts are meeting new people and working with sending books across the state of Georgia through the PINES system.

When Cathy is not working, she enjoys reading, shopping, decorating her home, and spending time with her family. She has been married for 21 years and has two children, Avery (age 17) and Autumn (age 14).

Cathy also enjoys her new “baby”, Gizmo. Gizmo is a 14 month old Pug.

One of Cathy’s most memorable experiences is that she traveled to Paris, France and Germany in 2000 with her family.

Stop by the Decatur County—Gilbert H. Gragg Library and meet Cathy Chestnut today!

Attention: Teachers
Let the library help make your life easier this school year!

Hey, teachers! The Southwest Georgia Regional Library System is jam-packed with resources to make your life easier this school year. For example, the library has several great books to help with classroom planning, including 101 Great Classroom Games by Alexis Ludewig and Amy Swan, Ph.D., and Blogs, Wikis, Podcasts, and Other Powerful Web Tools for Classrooms by Will Richardson. Also, the library has several editions of The Mailbox, which contain many classroom ideas in language arts, math, science, social studies, arts and crafts, and classroom displays. These books are available in several levels, including Kindergarten, Grades 2—3, and Intermediate.

Do you have a homework assignment or research project that requires students to use materials from the library? Visit our Homework Alert section on our website at www.swgrl.org/homework_alert.php. Simply fill out the online form with the assignment details, and we will be able to gather materials from our library and others around the state. This way, the materials will be easily accessible for your students.

Take advantage of the library’s resources to help teachers so you can help your students succeed this school year!
